SOCIETY

VERY smart and fashionable is the list of weddings for this week, and at least two of them will take place at big country places, with a whole household of guests entertained for the occasion. A bevy of lovely bridesmaids and wide halls and parlors fragrant with fall flowers and shaded lights is a charming setting indeed, with a week's round of entertaining done in honor of the bride party, makes society unusually interesting.

Special to the Ladies.

If you are interested in a black broadcloth suit, we would like to have you call and examine the handsome panne velvet cloth suits that we are offering this week as a special for $48.50. The suits are $75 values, and you will never have such an opportunity again to get such a bargain. Reduced prices also given on velvets and fancy broadcloth suits. We invite you to call and examine this cloth, whether you wish to buy or not.

WINTERS & DOLEZAL, Ladies' Tailors, 100½ Sixth Street, opposite Miller & Rhoads.

ected in most of the weddings of the next several days.

A very large part of Richmond society will be present at the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Laudon Wellford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carter Wellford, to Thomas Norman Jones, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Jones, which will be celebrated at high noon at "Sabine Hall," near Warsaw, on Wednesday morning. "Sabine Hall" is one of the most historic estates in Virginia. It was built by "King" Carter in 1730, and has been the scene of some of the most notable weddings celebrated in the South since its erection. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Baltimore, in the presence of distinguished gathering of friends and relatives from all parts of the State. Miss Wellford is a very beautiful girl, and she has chosen seven of the loveliest girls in society as her attendants. Their frocks have been copied from a French model, and are marvels of artistic needlework. Miss Flora Randolph Mason, of Fredericksburg, will be maid of honor, and Miss Frances L. Bemiss, of Richmond, Miss Cecelia

Hoe Brattan, of Princess Anne, Md.; Miss Neville St. George Lemmon, of Baltimore; Miss Mildred Foster, of Alexandria; Miss Marianne Gibbs, of Philadelphia, and Miss Camilla Scott Wellford, of Richmond, will be bridesmaids. Hamilton Bankerville, of Richmond, will be best man, and two little girls, Bettie Chinn and Page Baird, of Warsaw, will hold the ribbons. Another out-of-town wedding of interest to Richmond society, that will be celebrated on Wednesday, is that of Miss Hazelle Pancoast White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Brokenborough White, and Joel Chandler Harris, which will be celebrated on that evening at 6 o'clock at "Selma Farm," the handsome home of the bride's parents, near Leesburg. Miss Jane Elizabeth White, only sister of the bride, will be maid of honor, and Julia Harris, of Atlanta, will act as best man. The groomsmen will include Patrick Buckley, of Chicago, and Luther Rosser, of Atlanta. Misses Netta Harrison and Anna Shepherd, of Leesburg; Harriette Winchester, of Macon, Ga., and Frances Conrally, of Atlanta, will be bridesmaids.

A big reception followed by dancing will be given at "Selma Farm" after the ceremony. Miss White's wedding to Mr. Harris is a very interesting event, and will be one of the most brilliant weddings of the fall season. Distinguished guests from all parts of the country will go to Leesburg to be present at the ceremony, and a great deal of handsome entertaining will precede the ceremony on Wednesday. Mr. Harris is a son of the late Joel Chandler Harris, of Georgia, whose stories have long held a place in the hearts of young and old, and there is more than a passing interest in the wedding in Leesburg on Wednesday.

A very pretty wedding will be celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Allen Chambers, 814 Park Avenue, when Mrs. Chambers's sister, Miss Jackson, will become the bride of Donald Skipwith Harrison, of Danville. The ceremony, which will be witnessed by only the most intimate friends and relatives of the bride and groom, will take place at 6 o'clock on Tuesday evening, with Dr. Edmund Harrison, uncle of the groom, officiating. Miss Myra Chambers will attend the bride as maid of honor, and Charles Faulkner, of Bedford, will act as best man. Miss Jackson is a daughter of the late John F. Jackson, of this city, and Mr. Harrison is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Harrison, of Danville. Both families are prominent in society of the State, and a number of guests from a distance are in Richmond to attend the ceremony.

Miss Bradley's Wedding. The marriage of Miss Lily Davis Bradley and Luther R. Spittler, formerly of Swope, now of this city, will be celebrated at high noon to-morrow at the residence of Dr. J. N. Latham, pastor of Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Louise Virginia Bradley as maid of honor and will be handsomely gowned in a tailored suit of gray broadcloth. Only the immediate families of the bride and groom will be present at the ceremony. Mr. Spittler and his bride will leave at once to spend their honeymoon in the mountains of Virginia, and on their return, November 1, will be at home at 928 West Main Street.

Notable among the bride's wedding gifts was a very handsome silver service and a number of pieces of cut glass and mahogany.

Guest of Miss Davenport. Miss Carol Merriman, of China, is visiting Miss Mamie Davenport at her home, 203 West Franklin Street. Miss Davenport entertained a luncheon at the Country Club on Friday in honor of Miss Merriman. The table was decorated with flowers.
